Please respect and listen to the leaders. The mission trip is not just a fun trip; our goal is to serve and draw closer to Jesus. While we have fun expectations, repeated behavior issues will be addressed and communicated to parents/guardians. If necessary, we may ask for a parent/guardian to pick up the student at parent's expense.

Mission Arlington?

Mission Arlington / Mission Metroplex: We are an evangelical ministry functioning in partnership with local churches in Arlington from across all denominations. Essentially, we do two basic things (which are closely intertwined): 1) we begin Bible Studies which over time grow into churches in neighborhoods (mostly low-income apartment communities) all over this city and 2) we meet a variety of physical needs through free “benevolent” programs like medical clinics, food pantries, afterschool tutoring, and more. You will be partnering with us by leading evangelistic programs in the apartment communities and other neighborhoods where we have ministries and by supporting our benevolent programs.

Mission Arlington’s Dress Code

DRESS CODE Mission Arlington’s dress code is very basic. We ask all participants to dress modestly, comfortably, and in something where they are ready to work. Casual dress is fine all week long, Sunday included. Here are a few specific requests we make of all groups:

- Shorts are fine all week long. Please no short shorts.
- Footwear is up to you, but because we do so much work and active play outside, we recommend tennis shoes over flip-flops. Please remember that there are certain things you might wear at home working outside in the heat but that may not be the right image for knocking on doors and asking parents to let their children go with you. Because of this, please follow these additional guidelines all week long:
- T-shirts are great to wear, but please no tank tops or any other kinds of sleeveless shirts.
- Baseball caps are fine, but please wear forward at all times.
- Do not wear bandanas or any other type of head gear. (Winter headgear is okay if it’s cold.)
- We are asking everyone not wear leggings/tights/yoga pants/“jeggings” unless they are wearing a long shirt or sweater that would cover everything normally covered by a pair of pants.

Mission Work = Flexibility

Be focused on the most important thing: serving God. Mission work is full of surprises. God has a specific plan for you, and for the many lives He will use you to touch. The best preparation for this experience is spiritual. Keep reading your Bible daily, both before you come, and while you are here. Make sure you keep your quiet time with the Lord as a firm commitment. Don’t miss your moments with Him

Will my student need money?

Your $250 fee covers everything including hotel, food, Six Flags ticket. The only items not covered in your registration fee are snacks you may want to bring and any merchandise you may want to purchase from Six Flags

What if my specific questions are not answered in this packet?

We have provided on the first page a list of our Oneighty Student staff phone numbers, Please feel free to contact Sam Powers to answer your question.
